

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed as communicative English for Logistic course. The course introduces the key concepts in today's business world with authentic materials. Grammar, vocabulary, and social language are integrated within topic-based units. Balancing practical and informational input, the content of this course is designed to be appealing to the student learning English for Logistics. In each lesson, new language is examined, explained, integrated, expanded on, and applied so that students receive multiple exposures to the language as well as numerous opportunities to practice in all skill areas.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Specifically, students are expected to,

- ❖ Recognize logistics related situations and talk about them
- ❖ Describe logistics related processes / problems
- ❖ Use functional English for logistics
- ❖ Understand logistics contexts by reading and listening
- ❖ Communicate in logistics contexts

COURSE OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to

- ❖ Read and comprehend texts in the field of logistics
- ❖ Understand conversations related to logistics contexts
- ❖ Explain logistics related terms / processes / problems
- ❖ Discuss issues in logistics contexts
- ❖ Deliver clear and professional oral presentations on a range of logistics topics